Our Saviour, When He Told His Own

John 14:1-3, 6

Samuel Howard, 1762

Coventry

1. Our Sav-iour, when He told His own
that He ere long would leave, these bless-ed words of com-fort spoke lest they - and we - should grieve:

2. "Let not your hearts with anxious thoughts be troubled or dismayed. Believe in God, believe in Me and trust My gracious aid.
3. "I to My Father's house now go, where many dwellings are. As I have told you, there I will a place for you prepare.
4. "For one day I shall come again to take you unto Me; where I, your Lord and Saviour, am, there you shall also be.
5. "I am the way, the truth, the life. There is not anyone who shall to God the Father come except by Me, the Son."
