

PSALM 125

A song of ascents.

Geneva, 1551

1. Those who trust in the LORD re-semble Mount Zi-on, firm and sure, which ev-er will en-dure;
 it stands un-moved and will not trem-ble.
 So Is-ra-el will not be shak-en or be for-sak-en.

2. Jerusalem! As all around her the mountains stand on guard to keep her peace unmarred, so will the LORD Himself surround her to guard His own and be their Saviour now and forever.
3. The wicked's sceptre will not humble the land He did entrust to people right and just,
 lest they, enticed by evil, stumble, and they their hands to wrong be turning,
 God's counsel spurning.

4. Do good, O LORD, to those who fear You, to those who in Your sight are godly and upright.
To all in Israel who revere You, when *sinner*s to their doom are driven,
Your peace be given!
